The College of Arts & Sciences together with the Community Outreach Department of the University of Perpetual Help System Laguna conducted an outreach program for the benefit of the selected Grade 1 pupils of Pedro H. Escueta Memorial School, Barangay San Antonio, City of Biñan, Laguna last February 3, 2016.

The program was spearheaded by Fourth Year Psychology students of UPHSL. School supplies were given to forty (40) selected beneficiaries after the storytelling session. Learning materials were donated by volunteer students from the institution. "We want to share our blessings to the little ones that needed it most", as stated by one of the participants. Indeed, a character that our University wants us to have "a true Perpetualite as helper of God".
