EXTERNAL AFFAIRS OFFICE

Arrival of AFS Scholars and Courtesy Call
Executive School Director's Office, UPHSL
July 25, 2018

The American Field Service - Intercultural Program Philippines (AFS-IPP) scholars namely: Thamira Vilmarie Santana, United States of America; Ella Hanne Lyng Berthelsen of Nuuk Greenland, Denmark; Lara Schaefer of Germany arrived in the City of Biñan last February 22, 2018 to be part of the intercultural exchange program assigned to the University of Perpetual Help System Laguna.

This program is facilitated by the External Affairs Office headed by its Director, Dr. Josefa G. Carrillo. Upon arrival to the institution, a courtesy call was done by three (3) scholar-participants to the Executive School Director, Dr. Ferdinand C. Somido.

As part of the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with the AFS Philippines, they will be staying in the University for ten (10) months. They will be mingled with the classes in Senior High School Department. Ms. Santana will be joining in the Grade 12 class while Ms. Berthelsen and Ms. Schaefer will be joining in Grade 11 classes.

Dr. Pedrito Jose Bermudo, Dean College of Arts and Sciences; Ms. Veronica Samson, Director of Senior High School with Mr. Teodorico Solema joined the UPHSL group in welcoming the scholars. This program is part of the international intercultural exchange between the University and the American Field Service - IPP.
